

Rule 18 – Certification, Suspension, and Revocation
- Basic, Provisional, Renewal, and Reserves

Effective July 1, 2017

- (a) A suspension temporarily invalidates the subject certification until such time as the defect has been remedied. Any certification shall be suspended by the Board if the holder wrongfully obtained the certificate through misrepresentation, neglect or mistake.

- (a) The Board shall suspend a peace officer's certification if the peace officer fails to comply with the training requirements § 24-31-315, C.R.S. The POST Director shall reinstate a peace officer's certification that was suspended pursuant to this paragraph (a) upon completion of the training requirements in § 24-31-315, C.R.S. The reinstatement will be effective immediately.

- (c) A revocation permanently invalidates the subject certification. Any certification shall be revoked by the Board if the holder:
 - (I) Has been convicted of a felony or any misdemeanor as referenced in § 24-31-305(1.5), C.R.S. in any jurisdiction; or
 - (II) Wrongfully obtained certification through fraud or misrepresentation; or
 - (III) Has not met any other requirements imposed by the Board.
