Training Announcement Colorado Two Year's Later - Law Enforcement Marijuana Conference

Through tax revenue generated from the legalization of marijuana, POST along with CSP, CDOT, CDAC, and CACP are coordinating a conference for Colorado Law Enforcement about marijuana.

The Colorado Two Year's Later - marijuana conference is a three (3) day conference, beginning at 7:30am March 16 and concluding at 5:00pm, March 18th, 2016. This conference is designed to impart new knowledge about the current state of affairs regarding marijuana and the effects of marijuana seen by Colorado law enforcement. There will be classes on evidence, seizures, toxicology, SFST update, warrants, felony DUI's, marijuana 101 course, prosecutor presentations, department of revenue reports, and other topics concerning marijuana. Please register for the conference on the POST training portal.

One week prior to the conference additional registration details will be sent out requiring those registered to select specific classes as the conference is broken into three distinct tracks of learning. The three tracks of learning are marijuana education for law enforcement, public safety concerns, and an administrative track.

There is no registration cost for current Colorado Certified Peace Officers. Breakfast and lunch are provided as part of the conference.

POST will cover travel costs associated with this training. Additionally, POST will cover backfill and overtime costs associated with Colorado Law enforcement attendance at this conference.

If your agency will be requesting reimbursement please complete the attached form and submit to by February 1, 2016, for guaranteed reimbursement.
